ABOUT US

Since its inception in 1995, Piyush Engineers has been a trader of Industrial Fasteners and are furthering efforts by venturing as a manufacturer as well. We possess over 27 years of experience serving in the industry as a market leader. Further, we are an ISO-certified organization dealing in nuts, bolts, screws and fasteners. Now, we are launching our new and exclusive range of bolts, nuts and screws under the Brand name 'PE'.

As we deliver crucial components, we understand how important the details can be. Therefore, we never compromise on any aspect of the products we deliver. We have a devoted team of engineers examining the products well in advance to ascertain their quality while working with market leaders to partner in manufacturing.

To ensure quality and consistency across our products, we have an in-house quality testing lab. Every product leading its way out to our clients is strictly tested for quality and reliability. Moreover, we have strict testing parameters to provide a guarantee of no loopholes even in the slightest way. We are ISO certified company, and our Quality Systems are accredited and compliant with ISO 9001:2015. The team is well-trained to pay close attention to and conduct all quality testing precisely.

Further, we take pride in our team of engineers and quality testers holding years of industry experience and in-depth knowledge of quality testing processes. Our team backs up our efforts of delivering what we promise to you. The combined experience and expertise of our team help us further our business and refine our products by bringing in innovative solutions, use of technologies and practised perfection.

Furthermore, we endeavour to deliver products on time considering the importance that it holds. We are trustworthy enough to stand by our words and stay on the schedule we promise.
